

ASSESSING BEHAVIORS IN DEMENTIA

A Webinar Presentation

Presented by Chris Petrik, RN, BS, Training Specialist
Elderwerks Educational Services

Not all those living with dementia will display difficult behaviors. During this presentation Chris will be discussing who are at high risk for behaviors, the origins of said behaviors, and practical approaches for working with a person living with dementia who is expressing behaviors. Learn about common behaviors and their origins, and differentiating between depression, delirium, and dementia. Various types of behavioral assessments will also be discussed.
