

MOM and DAD, WE NEED to TALK

*How to Help Your Parents
- and Not Get in Trouble*

Mom and Dad are getting older. You want to make sure they are going to be okay as they age. You wonder if their eventual passing will put you in court, bankrupt you, or strain relationships with your siblings.

Do you wonder where to start and how to talk about it without getting in trouble?!

Dawn will share what she wishes she knew before her husband unexpectedly passed. You'll be surprised to learn why having a Will or a Trust isn't the same thing as having someone's affairs in order. She will uncover the 3 concepts that enable conversations and create relevance out of piles of data. It's possible to help your parents and not get in trouble. They'll love you for it!

Dawn helps people through her book, online program, workshops, and private coaching to live with confidence and avoid unnecessary pain when a loved one passes.

Dawn helps you to enjoy life and stop worrying about the "what ifs". You can live with confidence that you, and those you love most, will be protected when the unexpected happens.

The last message you leave your loved ones is the state of your affairs when you pass. When your affairs are in order, it is a gift that lasts for generations.

That is why The Best Gift is Your Last Gift.
