POWERS OF ATTORNEY

GET TO KNOW THE ESSENTIAL DOCUMENTS YOU NEED TO PROTECT YOURSELF

PRESENTED BY ALAN PRESS, JD, CPA & CAREN E.I. NAIDOFF, JD, SHIRE LAW GROUP®

This interactive, virtual town-hall discussion will focus on the essential documents that you need in place to protect you and your loved-ones. Learn about the Power of Attorney for Property and the Power of Attorney for Health Care and have discussions with our guest Elder Law attorneys on topics from Who you Should Name as Your Decision Maker and What Exactly can my Decision Maker Do? You will leave this session with a better understanding of what these documents can do and why they are so important.

ADVANCE CARE PLANNING – TALKING MATTERS!

PRESENTED BY MARY KAY FURIASSE, BSN, JD, LL.M AND LAUREN CIANELLI, BA, MSW, CDP
AZ HEALTH & ELDER LAW

When it comes to issues of mortality, all of us have a story to tell. Advance healthcare decision-making includes much more than living wills; it is a process that allows an individual to decide in advance what care they want to receive if they become unable to speak for themselves. Join us as we begin the conversation on your values - "what matters to you, not what's the matter with you."

PAYING FOR LONG-TERM CARE – UNCOVERING THE MEDICARE MYTHS

PRESENTED BY MELISSA KALLIO, JD, DUTTON CASEY & MESOLORAS, PC

In celebration of May being National Elder Law Month, Melissa will focus on the concern and financial burden of paying for Long Term Care. A realistic look at our future or the future of an aging senior leaves many wondering "how can I afford to age?" Melissa will uncover the Medicare Myths and provide attendees guidelines and specifics that apply to Long Term Care Costs. Attendees will have an improved understanding of their options.
